Summary:

Small Business Saturday, launched as an annual celebration on the Saturday after Thanksgiving, highlights the important role small businesses play in Kane County's economy. Giving Tuesday, established as a national day of giving on the Tuesday following Thanksgiving, inspires philanthropy, volunteerism and community service as citizens come together to support causes that matter to them. Members of the Kane County Board, encourage residents to take part in Small Business Saturday and participate in Giving Tuesday to help create a thriving, caring and prosperous future for all.
